The Daily Courant.

Friday, December 30. 1720

Naples, December 10.

THE Marquess del Valle, Son of the Duke of Monteleone, arrived here the latter End of last Week from Vienna, whither he had been to carry the agreeable News of the total Reduction of Sicily, and the present good Order maintained there; for which his Imperial Majesty has conferred on him the Protonotary's Place in that Kingdom. He has taken up his Residence for the present at the Archbishop's Palace, with his Uncle the Cardinal Pignatelli; several Coaches with six Horses being sent on the Road to Capua, to conduct hither his Spouse, upon whose Arrival, they will afterwards set out from hence to their Father the Duke de Monteleone in Sicily. The Emperour has bestowed the Government of Syracuse upon the Marquess de Saluzzo. The Nuns of the Royal Convent celebrated Yesterday in their Church the Funeral Obsequies of the late Cardinal Casoni, the Protector of their Order. The same Day Sig. Francesco Vincenti, Resident from the Republick of Venice, made his publick Entry into this City, with a Train of above 120 Coaches, belonging to the Foreign Ministers and the Nobility here; and has had his first publick Audience of our Viceroy.

Genoa, Dec. 12. On the 31st of the last Month, we had a violent Tempest of Thunder and Lightning; it did little Damage in this City, but two Churches in the Country have received great Hurt by it. On the 2d Instant, Sig. Constantini Balbin set out hence for Rome, whither he is to go in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick. M. de Chavigni, Envoy Extraordinary from France, is likewise set out from this Place, designing to proceed to several of the Italian Courts, in order to execute the private Affairs he is commissioned with from France. Advices from Algiers by Way of Leghorn say, that the Regency would not admit to Audience the Chiaux which the Grand Signior sent thither lately, to dispose those People to renew their Peace with the Dutch; from whence it is inferred, that the Deputies who were lately sent to Constantinople from Algiers, had no Orders to treat concerning the Peace.

Rome, Dec. 14. The Pope is very much pleased with the News of the Moors having been defeated by the Spaniards; and likewise by the late Advices from Madrid, with which Cardinal Acquaviva has informed the Pontiff, concerning the good Reception his Nuncio Sig. Aldrovandini has met with from their Catholick Majesties, and that his Office of Nunciosship had been newly opened at Madrid, which gives Hopes of a good Agreement between the the King of Spain and this Court. On the 5th Instant, the Corps of the Marquess Spinelli was exposed in State in the Church of St. John of the Florentines, where his Funeral Obsequies were celebrated, and attended by 32 Knights of Malta, and many Persons of Distinction. Sig. Grimaldi is ordered to go immediately from the Nunciosship at Poland to Vienna, and Sig. Archinto from the Nunciosship of Cologn to that at Warsaw. Sig. Santini, Internuncio at Brussels, is appointed Nuncio to Poland, and Sig. Spinelli is declared Apostolical Vicar in the Low Austria. Yesterday being St. Lucy's Day, Cardinal Ottoboni, Protector of France, held a publick Chapel in the Church of St. John de Lateran, where 130 Cardinals and other Persons of Distinction, were invited, and were afterwards splendidly treated by his Eminency at Dinner.

Stockholm, Dec. 8. M. Rampf, [illegible] Generals Master, continues his Indefatigable the Reëstablishment of the Dutch Ships seized [illegible] with [illegible] to obtain some Satisfaction for their Loss. It is reported, that [illegible] shortly an Assembly of the States of the Kingdom, to deliberate on several important Affairs; and among others, upon Methods for putting a Period to the War against the Czar. Letters from Finland say, that the Russians are making Dispositions for a Descent, as it had been reported they were; however, no Means on our side are neglected that may prevent those Attempts; to which purpose the Troops are all quartered in proper Stations, the better to be able to draw together in case of Emergency. The King has ordered a great Quantity of Corn to be laid up in the Magazines, to prevent a Scarcity. Officers are frequently passing between this Court and that of Cassel; and 'tis said that the Landgrave will furnish a considerable Number of Troops for the Service of this Kingdom against the next Spring. Count Vander Nath has Liberty allowed him to visit his Friends, in Presence of an Officer, who must constantly accompany him. The Copper Mines which were damaged by the Mutineers, are most of them restored to their former Condition. It has frozen so hard for about four Days past, that the Navigation is quite stopped.

Vienna, Dec. 18. It was expected that the Duke of Holstein might make a [illegible] to thank the Emperour for his good Offices, and to take Leave of his Imperial Majesty; but it is reported that he has wrote a Letter to the Emperour, to which his Imperial Majesty has [illegible] written with his own [illegible] wishing him a good Journey. It is not doubted but that the Duke has a Design to go to Petersbourg, [illegible] speak with more Assurance than ever [illegible] with a Czarian Princess. The Report [illegible] has been spread concerning Count Stratemberg's not going to Great Britain, is groundless; and his Instructions are getting ready in order for his immediate setting out thither. The Ambassadors for Sweden are likewise preparing, he being to assist at the Brunswick Congress; and 'tis given out, that Baron Kirchner will also be sent thither. The King of Poland is said to desire that the Congress may be opened as soon as possible; it is likewise said, that the Czar is desirous of the same; and this Court also would gladly see the Northern Troubles terminated by a good Peace. Count Edzordi, the Emperour's Ambassador in Poland, is not to go to Petersbourg, but is to reside some time longer at Warsaw, to endeavour to pacify the Malecontents, and contribute his good Offices to keep that Kingdom in Quietness. It is reported, that Major General Jagofinsky is shortly to set out to Petersbourg, and that the Czar will appoint another Minister in his Place. A Rumour is spread, that the Janisaries have lately made Incursions, and pillaged even to the Borders of Belgrade; which makes People impatient for the Arrival of the next Letters from those Parts, to know certainly the Grounds for that Report. Letters from Constantinople confirm the Departure of the Czar's Minister from thence, and carrying with him to Petersbourg the renewed Treaty between his Master and the Ottoman Port. The Emperour has directed his Ministers to make to him a faithful Report of the Answer from the Evangelical Body. Baron Fraecken, Envoy from the Elector Palatine, has visited the principal Ministers of this Court, and assures them his Master is truly disposed to re-settle Religious Affairs on the foot they were upon at the time of the Treaty of Baden.

Ratisbon, Dec. 23. The Minister of the Elector of Mayence had acquainted the Evangelical Body, that an Assembly would be held for deliberating on the Imperial Decree concerning Religious Affairs, but not one of the Protestant Members repaired to that Assembly; since which they have had a Conference among themselves, and have agreed to assist at no General Deliberation upon that important Affair till they receive the Emperour's Answer to the last Remonstrances from their Body. The Roman Catholick Ministers have likewise had a private Meeting, to draw up a Memorial, in which they they are to pretend to justify their Conduct on that Occasion, and which, it is said, they have already dispatched to the Imperial Court. The abovesaid Remonstrances from the Evangelical Body are printed, and every one of the Ministers have sent a Copy of it to their Sovereigns: So great a Number is already disposed of as has occasioned the making a second Edition.

Brunswick, Dec. 24. It is yet uncertain when the Congress will be opened. The Count de Welling, Plenipotentiary from Sweden, has received Orders from the King his Master to stay here, instead of going to Bremen. The young Count Welling is set out to Stockholm with some Dispatches from his Father.

Hambourg, Dec. 27. Advices from Petersbourg say, that M. de la Ferté, Chief Ingineer, who had the Direction of the new Canal which the Czar had ordered to be made, was arrived there, and had acquainted his Czarish Majesty with the forwardness of the Work, with which he seemed to be well pleased. According to the Ingineer's Report, the Canal may be compleated next Summer; but all Endeavours towards it are suspended during the Winter, the 10000 Men who used to be employed about it being sent home. The Czar has laid aside his intended Journey to visit the Frontiers, his Physitians not thinking it convenient for his Health during the Winter Season.

Hague, Jan. 3. 'A Dutch Ship bound to Nants 'was on the 30th of last Month drove upon the 'Schevelling Sands by the late Storms of Wind, 'and was beat to Pieces; but the greater part of 'the Crew were fortunately saved: Every Day 'brings fresh Accounts of such like Disasters.

'The Marquess de Beretti Landi, Ambassadour 'from Spain, has put off his Departure to the 8th 'Instant; and Count Windisgrats has done the 'same.

'The Assembly of the States of Holland con-'tinues fixed to the 8th Instant, when they are 'to resume their Deliberations on Matters relating 'to Publick Credit and Commerce.
